DWD ISSUANCE 09-99

SUBJECT: Adult Average Wage at Placement

1. Purpose: To provide the Adult Average Wage at Placement used for Program Year 1999 (PY'99) II-C Youth on-the-job training contracts.
2. Substance: Based on the approved waiver from the Department of Labor, DWD Policy for PY'99 is that on-the-job training for youth must pay a wage which equals at least 70% of the Service Delivery Area's average wage at placement for Title II-A participants, and have career advancement possibilities. The final regulations require the SDA's Average Wage at Placement for Title II-A participants are based on the most recent available data. The Division's policy is that quarterly data meets this test.

Attachment I is the Adult Average Wage at Placement. This average is based on PY'99 Title II-A formula funds' third quarter data. It must be used to calculate the basis for any on-the-job training contracts which serve Title II-C youth and are entered into as of the date this issuance is received.
